

DAAD

Deutscher Akademischer Austausch Dienst
German Academic Exchange Service

Policy meets Land Management Education, Research and capacity Development in Land Management, Geo Informatics and Geodesy

Munich, April 18, 2008

DAAD, Division for Development Cooperation

Development co-operation - one of the DAAD's main working fields

DAAD Division 43: Co-operation with developing countries

Scholarships for professional PhD
and Master Courses

Alumni programmes

Subject-related University Partnerships

DIES
Higher Education
Management Programmes

Postgraduate Courses for Professionals

Funding:

Budget 2007: 8,9 mio euros

Postgraduate Courses for Professionals Figures (a tracer study in 2005 revealed):

- /// more than 90% graduated successfully
- /// 75% returnees
- /// 87,0% of them were incessantly employed
- /// 60,4% of them work for their former employer
- /// more than 54,8% is in senior management or management positions
- /// graduates become decision makers in their countries

Conference “20 years Postgraduate Courses”

In 20 years: approx. 4,500 scholarships awarded

Postgraduate Courses for Professionals

„My research is oriented towards people’s needs. That keeps me motivated because I can make a difference with my work.“

(Alumnus, U Bonn)

„Our graduates’ potential employers want people who can think outside the box. That’s why our course of studies incorporates broad knowledge.“

(Course leader, U Bonn)

A new activity for Germany – Alumni:

Information: Visit our Website

<http://www.daad.de/development>

Thank you very much for your attention!

DAAD, Division 43 „Development Co-operation“ Section 431 „Postgraduate Programmes“