

Surname, First name:

Batbayar, Uurtsaikh

Country: Mongolia

Academic year: 2007 – 2009

Degree: BSc Public Administration, Academy of Management in Mongolia, 2002.
MSc Land Management and Land Tenure (TUM), 2009.

Job title: Officer of Monitoring and Evaluation Division

Company / institution: Administration of Land Affairs, Geodesy and Cartography (ALAGAC), Mongolian Government regulatory agency

Phone Numbers:

- 976-11-329638
- 976-99094735

Addresses: Administration of Land Affairs, Geodesy and Cartography, Barilgachdyn talbai-3, Government building 12, Chingeltei district, Ulaanbaatar 211238, Mongolia

E-mail:

- uurtsaikh@mytum.de
- uzka17@yahoo.com

Title of Master's Thesis: "The importance of national land information system (NLIS) in Mongolian land privatization (Case study of Ulaanbaatar)"

Field of Interest:

- Land Administration, Land management and Land tenure
- Rural development
- Land reforms in international experiences

Description of company / institution: The main areas of activities of ALAGAC are geodesy and cartography, land management, land use planning, cadastral surveying, mapping and registration, development of NLIS. ALAGAC's head office is located in Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia. It has branch offices in all 21 aimags (provinces) of Mongolia and in Ulaanbaatar City. Also, there is one land officer in each of the 331 soums (municipalities). Total number of employees is 646.

Job description: To evaluate and monitor the process of land privatization in whole 21 provinces and capital city.
To support and to advise to the whole employees at ALAGAC regarding land privatization process and land administration activities.

Language skills:

- English
- German
- Mongolia

Additional skills / interests:

- ArcGIS
- MS Office programs
- MS Project